

Chris Wasel, is President, Marketing & Strategic Partnerships for Vantage Healthcare the largest physician practice of its type in New England providing services to skilled nursing facilities and assisted living facilities. He has over 20 years' experience in health care operations, business development, value-based payment consulting and network development, and information technology development for care coordination. Prior to joining Vantage he was the Co-Managing Partner for Post-Acute Care Planning Services, an organization that provided post-acute care management and consulting for ACOs seeking to build and operate post-acute care provider networks. He is the Co-Founder of AccountedCare, an information technology company that provides systems and services to physician practices and various organizations participating in value-based payment arrangements caring for an older adult patient population